Volume II, Issue E

July 15, 2009

Damn, who ARE these good-looking people? ABC Club showed up lookin' fresh to the Enormous Room for last Thursday's E Bar. In high spirits due to the wonderful lack of rain, over 50 members piled into the upstairs lounge and got cozy on leather couches and Turkish pillows. We kept the bartenders pretty busy and, as the night went on, the DJ too, as requests for Michael Jackson and "anything other than strange world music" were shouted to the music man through the hole in the brick wall. More than one person made the astute observation that this hole looked like it had been punched there by Super Mario himself.

Anyway...we were happy to see you all and definitely loved sprawling out across the not-totally-Enormous-but-still-very-decently-sized Room. Looking forward to F Bar, which will be at Foundation Lounge in Kenmore Square, part of the Commonwealth Hotel. We've got some private space, but are free to roam the patio and the whole bar! Stay after 9:00 and the DJ will be playing 90s hits for Throwback Thursday, which we have aptly renamed Flashback F Bar!
