Volume II, Issue I

September 17, 2009

In honor of the return of football season, some highlights of last Thursday's ABC Club gathering.

The opening drive began with the home team in the "I" formation. Some important members of the offense got blitzed early on, resulting in Jessica fumbling mid-field and knocking over a drink. The field crew arrived immediately to tend to the foul. After a penalty for delay of game, the co-founders pulled the raffle winner. Touchdown! Laura scores a $50 giftcard to come back to Ivy.

In the second half, the visiting team from Chicago took some cheap shots and after excessive time outs, both teams decided to call it a draw and just share a bottle of wine. ABC Club is more about relaxing anyway!

See you next week at JJ Foley's in the South End. Live band, half priced apps, and the usual ABC Club silliness will ensue! Plus another great prize for grabs!!!
