Volume II, Issue L

October 20, 2009

K Bar was a kickass good time with lots of large tasty brews and even more friendly faces returning to ABC Club. Highlights of the night included a call-in from co-founder Leslie from Wisconsin, and an AMAZING brain storming session by some of our regulars. (See them hard at work above.)

Rouse yourself from the couch this Thursday to stop by Lansdowne Street for all the things you don't expect to get there—good beer, sweet fireplaces, and no cover! Come out to take advantage of the newest pub on the street and to check out Fenway without the traffic!
