Volume II, Issue T

April 2, 2010

A, B, C, shoot! The echoes of this directive rang throughout the side bar of Tavern In the Square on Thursday.

Why all the excitement? Well, in honor of the T theme, to encourage merriment, and to satisfy Nil's gambling nature, we played "Top Dollar", a game where you challenge opponents to a coin toss, thumb war, or Rock, Paper, Scissors duel in order to earn ABC Club bucks that were redeemed for free drinks. Let's just say that the skill level seemed to increase as the night went on, and seven fine ABCers were treated to drinks on our tab.

We were really pleased to meet some new friends last night and welcome them into the crazy crew.

There are only six more letters left in this season, so make sure you come out to join us next time at U Bar.

Nominations for our annual Y Bar "Your Choice" vote will begin at Uno's (we know it's weird, but who doesn't love $1.99 Pizza Skins?) So bring your ideas of great, new venues for ABC, along with your usual charm and good looks.

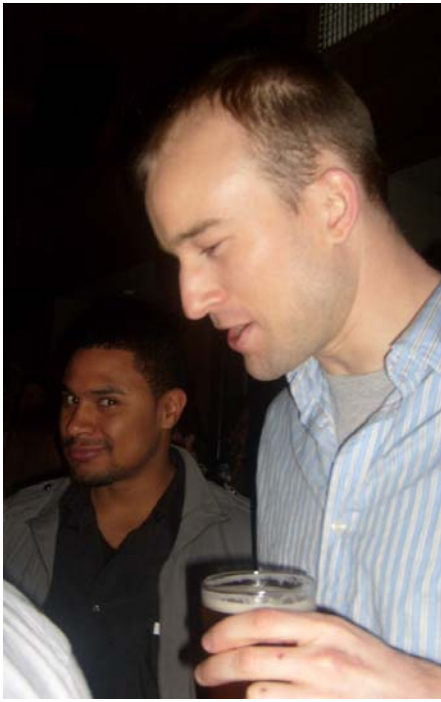

Have a great holiday weekend!
